ELECTORS TO VOTE TODAY IN ALBERTA

Province's Nine-Year-Old Farmer Administration Will Face Most Severe Test of Its Career

TWO CANDIDATES IN MOST RIDINGS

Forecasts indicate that Polling Will Be Heavier Than at Last Election—Spirited Contests

(Canadian Press)
CALGARY, Alta., June 18.—At the polls tomorrow, Alberta's nine-year-old Farmer Administration faces the most severe test in its career. Opposition groups, determined to render the provincial hall a finish-line, have made two-candidate "straight contests" the rule where in previous elections they were the exception. Split-up votes will be rare.

Premier J. E. Brownlee and three of his fellow-farmers have been given acclamations, but there will be no quarter granted in the quest for the remaining fifty-nine seats in the Assembly. Thirty-five contests will be strenuous two-man fights, compared to only five "straight contests" in the last election, when the United Farmers of Alberta party returned 43 of 60 members.

Opponents of the Government are pointing to the fact that in 1926, the U.F.A. candidates polled but 40 per cent of the province's ballots, though more than 70 per cent of the elected members were farmers. This is ascribed to the fact that 183 candidates flocked into the field four years ago, while this year only 140, though seats in the House have been increased to sixty-three.

Will Continue in Election Campaign

PREMIER G. H. FERGUSON

TORONTO, June 18.—Reinvigorated after a brief holiday, Premier G. H. Ferguson returned to his office today to be greeted with hundreds of congratulatory messages upon his sixtieth birthday. Messages were received from all parts of the Dominion. While Premier King, in his Peterboro speech last night, suggested that Premier Ferguson go about his own business and keep out of the Federal election, the Ontario Premier said today he plans continuing in the campaign.

"I will satisfy the public at an early date," stated Premier Ferguson, "that the delay in the St. Lawrence development has been entirely due to the determination of the Government at Ottawa to ignore the rights of the provinces in its waterpower resources."

"Provinces have rights," he continued, "and if they do not make a light for their rights, they would be swallowed up in the Federal jurisdiction. The Government at Ottawa is purely federalistic in its attitude toward these problems."

Conferences Unfettered By Restraint

By GEORGE HAMILTON
Canadian Press Staff Correspondent
LONDON, June 18.—The British Government proposes to place no limitations on the scope of discussion at the forthcoming Imperial Conference, but all subjects of interest to the Empire will be aired, declared Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald in the House of Commons today.

The Prime Minister spoke of the economic conference which will be held at the same time as the Imperial Conference proper. At this meeting, he announced, "everything of economic interest to the Dominions and to ourselves may be brought up."

Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas, Secretary of State for the Dominions, also made it clear that the Government desired discussion in the widest possible terms.

(Copyright, 1930, by The Chicago Daily News Service)
PARIS, June 18.—While the last details of the French naval programme for the next fiscal year, April, 1931, to March, 1932, are still under discussion, the Admiralty has already definitely decided to include in this programme the laying down of one armored cruiser of 2,900 tons, having a speed of thirty knots and carrying fourteen-inch guns. This ship will be the first of three of the same type, but her completion will require three or four years.

The French Admiralty thinks that armored cruisers will be the most adequate reply to the Italian 4,000-ton building programme for the

$225,000 Damage Caused by Fire Of Flour Mills

WALLA WALLA, Wash., June 18.—Fire, believed caused by a hot bearing in machinery on the second floor of the main building, completely destroyed the Northern Flour Mills here late today. ### TRIBESMEN DRIVEN FROM CAVE SHELTERS

(Associated Press)
BOMBAY, India, June 18.—With the coming of the rainy season halting attacks of the Indian Nationalists against the Government salt works, authorities today strengthened their fight against the non-payment of taxes—which has succeeded the salt raids—in two widely separated areas.

TAX EVASION GENERAL

In the Gujarat, where civil disobedience has been widespread since Mahatma Gandhi opened his campaign there on March 12, the Government has begun attaching movable property of those who refuse to pay land taxes. The evaders lock doors and flee when tax collectors appear, so attachment was resorted to.

To the northeast, in the Punjab, police today arrested 150 tax evaders in a village near Delhi.

The Nationalists in Bombay continued processions and demonstrations today. When Pandit Motilal Nehru, acting president of the All-India National Congress, reached here today he led a parade of Nationalists from the Indian quarter to the Congress House. He was hailed by a throng of supporters.

Smuggling Case Heard On Appeal

SHANGHAI, June 18.—Ying Kao, former Chinese vice-consul in San Francisco, and his wife, who were returned to China and convicted of attempting to smuggle a huge shipment of opium into the United States last summer, took appeals today to the Chinese Supreme Court at Nanking today.

Ying Kao's sentence was fixed by the Soochow Court of Appeals at six years' imprisonment and a fine of $6,000. Mrs. Ying Kao's punishment was set at four years' imprisonment and a $4,000 fine. The Supreme Court, whose decision will be final, will pass upon the judgment of the appellate tribunal.

GOVERNMENT MUST START EMPLOYMENT

Mr. Leon J. Ladner, Late Member and Conservative Candidate in Vancouver South, Speaks Here

ADVERSE BALANCE OF TRADE STRESSED

Analyzes Budget's Influence on Dominion Policies, in View of Serious Industrial Situation

A MERCILESS analysis of Liberal methods at Ottawa during the last eight years, supported by figures which carried convincing evidence of the country's impaired economic standing, was contained in the splendid address given by Mr. Leon Ladner, K.C., late member and Conservative candidate for Vancouver South, at the Conservative meeting here last night. Mr. Ladner forced the wedge of his argument into the weak places in the Mackenzie King policy, which he described as vacillating, insincere, and ineffective in that it failed to cope with the great matter of unemployment in the community.

Mr. Ladner was Canada's major problem at the present time. He was particularly caustic in his reference to their policy in respect of tariff relations with the United States, which had, he maintained, a direct bearing on the vital question of unemployment in Canada. In congratulating Victoria Conservatives on having chosen Mr. D. B. Plunkett once more as their representative, he added a reminder that in working for the success of the Conservatives in the forthcoming election they were standing for policies which would aid in the rebuilding of the country.

T. Wang declares that foreigners may not visit, without presenting passports, places not opened to foreign travel.

The ministry explains that the measure is not anti-foreign, but necessary partly for the protection of traveling foreigners, and partly to guard against the "sinister activities of foreign reactionary agents in China."

N.D. VOTERS TO RECORD FRANCHISE

Polling Today in Maritime Province After Strenuous Campaign Waged by Two Rival Parties

TO ELECT FORTY-EIGHT MEMBERS

(Canadian Press)
SAINT JOHN, N.B., June 18.—The New Brunswick election campaign has been waged in its final stage, with only the grand assault left for tomorrow. The activities of both the Government (Conservatives) and the Opposition parties have been strenuous during the last three weeks and tonight all the participants, apparently, were satisfied to give place to those engaged in polling the vote. During the campaign the whole province has been subjected to a wave of speech making, which has taken on somewhat of the aspect of old-time political fights.

The activities died down somewhat today, but Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Premier of the province, kept going and addressed meetings in four places, Dartmouth, Nelson and Newmarket. The Opposition leader, Mr. W. P. Jones, engaged in personal work in his own county of Carleton.

PARTIES CONFIDENT

While both parties expressed their confidence in the results of the election, persons not personally engaged in the campaign say they would not be surprised at anything, and the result of the voting will be awaited with more than usual interest.

When the Legislature dissolved there were thirty-five supporters of the Government in the House with eleven in opposition. Two seats were vacant, the members having died.

The Opposition party has promised, if elected, to give the people a plebiscite on the question of prohibition. This question took much of the attention of the speakers in the campaign and voting is expected to be influenced by this.

The polls are open at 8 a.m. and close at 4 p.m. The results will be available about 8 o'clock.

The church caught fire and six died later of burns received. A large number of others were burned badly, the peasants remaining rooted to the spot.

Conservatives of Victoria Acclaim Mr. D. B. Plunkett

Unanimously Endorse His Candidature for House of Commons After Two Years of Aggressive Work for This City—Tributes Paid to His Energetic Service

Candidate Thanks Party For Continued Support

M. R. D. B. Plunkett, late member for Victoria, was the unanimous choice of the Conservative nominating convention which assembled in the party rooms last night to name a candidate to contest the riding of Victoria in the coming Dominion election. His selection was greeted with acclamations, and speakers who followed paid a compliment to the worth of Mr. Plunkett as a member of the House of Commons.

MR. D. B. PLUNKETT

In acknowledging the honor Mr. Plunkett spoke briefly. He said that he would have the opportunity to address them at greater length as the campaign went on.

"There are times when one cannot express the appreciation and gratitude which one feels," said Mr. Plunkett. "This is one of those occasions."

He said that he had been given the most loyal support that anyone could have in the Conservatives of this city, and in every way possible he had been assisted in the duties which he had to perform. From the bottom of his heart, he said, he thanked them.

There was no greater honor, he felt, that could be bestowed upon one than to have the expression of confidence in him such as was bestowed by this act.

The Dominion of Canada had great issues facing it at this time. He wished to take occasion to correct an impression which it appeared the Liberal party was trying to spread abroad, and this was that the Conservatives were against British preference.

"British preference comes first," said Mr. Plunkett in denying any such insinuation. He said that the Conservative party stood firmly behind that principle.

Turning his attention to the question of unemployment, Mr. Plunkett said that Mr. Mackenzie King did not even yet seem to accept the grave situation which existed and seek to provide a remedy.

Mr. King had evidenced his extreme egotism when in the House of Commons he had said "I will not give a five cent piece to a province with a Tory Government."

Grand Jury Makes Customary Condemnation of Lack of Modern Facilities and Accommodation

DEAL FULLY WITH CAR REGISTRATION

A centralized system of car-title registration, certain changes in drivers' licences, and more dignified and suitable premises for the civil courts and the Land Registry Office were the leading recommendations brought in by the grand jury at the special sittings yesterday afternoon, prior to the completion of their work, and the discharge of the jury.

The presentation was made by Mr. Robert H. Swinerton, foreman of the grand jury, and was as follows:

WELCOME CHATELAIN

"Your Lordship, in your address to the grand jury, referred to the return of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia and of his niece, Miss Mackenzie, who accompanied him, and expressed the pleasure you felt on his return, and at the same time your pleasure of welcoming Miss Mackenzie to this province."

LATE MINISTER'S WIDOW IN FIELD

WINDSOR, Ont., June 18.—Mrs. Glenora Kennedy, widow of Hon. William Kennedy, is to be standard-bearer for the Liberal party in Essex West. She was nominated tonight at an opening meeting which packed the hall. The reception tendered her is termed by leaders as the most enthusiastic ever witnessed in the riding.

BRITISH PREFERENCE

"British preference comes first," said Mr. Plunkett in denying any such insinuation. He said that the Conservative party stood firmly behind that principle.

Turning his attention to the question of unemployment, Mr. Plunkett said that Mr. Mackenzie King did not even yet seem to accept the grave situation which existed and seek to provide a remedy.

PANIC SWEEPS ROYAL ASCOT RACE CROWDS

Bolt of Lightning Kills Bookmaker, Only Few Yards From King, Queen and Prince of Wales

SCRIMMAGE TO EXTRICATE CARS

(Associated Press)
ASCOT, Eng., June 18.—The Royal Ascot race meeting was washed out this afternoon by one of the worst storms to visit England in the last few years. A storm with tragic results in the death of a bookmaker.

Twenty-two horses ran for the Royal Hunt Cup with the McChesney in first, Lord Glenlyon's Idol second and Sir H. Guntill Owen's Lionhearted third. But the glamour of the meet, which was attended by the King and Queen, was destroyed by the elements.

A bolt of lightning struck and killed Walter Holbein, widely known North of England bookmaker, only a few yards away from the King and Queen, the Prince of Wales and the Queen. But there were no other casualties except for beautiful dresses and alpacas which were plastered with mud. The storm, which turned paddocks and enclosures into miniature lakes, lasted nearly an hour. It broke just as the Royal Hunt Cup was being run and extraordinary scenes were witnessed as it came down by the same time.

Fashionably-dressed women rushed for shelter and many of them fell or were knocked into the mud. Hats were lost and some of the guests left behind their shoes, stuck in the deep mud.

WADE IN MUD

When the rain ceased conditions were nearly as bad. Men and women high in society waded ankle deep in the mud of the parking places, joining in a scrimmage to extricate their cars from the thousands others trying to get away at the same time.

The King and Queen and others of their party kept dry for they had shelter in the royal lounge. They left in their car for Windsor Castle when the downpour had halted.

The other races on the card were abandoned, and will be divided between tomorrow and Friday's programme.

Progress is Made in Connection

With Introduction of Stock Under

Empire Marketing Board Plan

A message received at the Department of Agriculture yesterday from the deputy minister, Mr. J. B. Munro, who is in the East, conveys the information that the opinion was given by Dr. J. H. Girdale, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for the Dominion, that it would be safe to advise that shipments of purebred stock made under the arrangements entered into between the Empire Marketing Board and the Government of British Columbia would be possible, coming direct to the Pacific ports.

This is a matter which Premier Tolmie had had up with the department in the East, and it was agreed that there would be quarantine facilities provided on the Pacific Coast in British Columbia, so that purebred stock coming from Great Britain might be entered through as is done at Quebec. This was suggested for the purpose of overcoming the detention of the stock in the East, to be followed by a long car haul across the continent.

Dr. Girdale's assurance to Mr. Munro was that the matter was being finally adjusted, and that it would be all right to import under the arrangement entered into with the assurance that the quarantine would be provided on this Coast.

POLICE MAKE SEARCH FOR CAR DRIVER

Victoria and District Being Combed to Find Person Responsible for Death of Louis Jackson

INQUEST ORDERED BY CORONER HART

Victoria and surrounding districts are being combed by police in search for a "hit-and-run" driver, who is believed responsible for the death of Louis Jackson, sixty-four, second steward on the lighthouse tender Estevan.

Jackson was found lying in a pool of blood on the south side of Bay Street at the intersection with Turner Street, at 11:30 o'clock on Tuesday night, by Mr. C. Croft, an operator in the employ of the B.C. Electric Railway Co. He was taken to the Jubilee Hospital where he died at 12:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

An inquest has been ordered by Dr. E. C. Hart, coroner. Louis Jackson was a popular member of the Estevan's crew, having held the position of second steward on the ship since 1918; he also had a wide circle of friends here. Police yesterday notified his brother in California of the accident.

COURT HOUSE ONCE MORE CRITICIZED

"My Lord, the grand jury desires also to respectfully express its pleasure on His Honor's return and to extend to Miss Mackenzie a very hearty welcome."

CAR-TITLE REGISTRY

"My Lord, during this session there have been a number of indictments dealt with, in which the system of financing automobiles has been brought to our attention. Naturally the grand jury has given some thought to the question as to whether in the public interest a system somewhat similar to that in force in connection with the registration of titles to land could and should be evolved, which would afford greater protection and facilitate the financing of automobiles, as well as protect the general buying public better than the present method; such to provide for chattel mortgages, conditional sales, agreements, or other documents in connection with automobiles, which might be registered as charges."

"We find on inquiry it is being given serious consideration by the Attorney-General's Department, and at the present time the systems in operation elsewhere are being investigated. With this investigation we are fully in accord, and we respectfully submit that in our opinion legislation should not be enacted without a full and thorough investigation and study having been made."

UNDER PROVINCIAL JURISDICTION

"In the event of legislation being enacted, we would suggest that for the convenience of the public it should come under the jurisdiction of Provincial Police, combined with that of the present system of registration of automobiles."

"My Lord, a committee of the grand jury visited the Provincial Police headquarters, Menzies Street, and were conducted by Inspector Parsons, the acting superintendent, and shown the splendid, up-to-date and exceptionally efficient system of card-indexing by which the particulars in respect to the licensing of automobiles are recorded."

PRaise FOR POLICE

"It is surprising how quickly information can be given, and it is well that the public should know it. The make of car, owner, engine number, serial number and registration number are all recorded, and any such question is answered almost immediately. We understand Inspector Hod designed and installed this very efficient system, and he deserves every credit therefor."

"We desire to express our thanks to Inspector Parsons, Sergeant Handley and other officials who so courteously and obligingly gave the committee the object lesson of the system."

Simple Remedy For Bad Stomach Gives Swift Relief

No Need of Strong Medicines or Diet—Safe and Simple Home Recipe Keeps Stomach in Fine Condition

If you are a victim of Stomach Troubles—Gas, Sourness, Pain or Bloating—you may have quick and certain relief by following this simple advice.

Don't take strong medicines, artificial digestants or pull down your system with starvation diets. For within reason most folks may eat what they like if they will keep their stomach free from souring acids that hinder or paralyze the work of digestion.

And the best and easiest way to do this is to follow every meal with a little Bismarck Magnesia—a pleasant, harmless, inexpensive, and handy to use preparation that all reliable druggists can supply in either powder or tablet form. Its use promptly neutralizes acidity and keeps your stomach sweet and clean.

A week's trial of Bismarck Magnesia should quickly convince you that 80 per cent of ordinary stomach distress is absolutely unnecessary. Be sure to get Bismarck Magnesia and give it a good trial. (Adv.)

Course Offered Free of Charge by the Faculty of Agriculture, U.B.C., Leads to Diploma

FURTHER DATA MAY BE SECURED

While it is not possible to get a college degree in one year, it is possible now for farm boys and girls of British Columbia to get a diploma from the College of Agriculture, University of British Columbia, after one year's studies.

A special one-year occupational course in agriculture is offered to the young folks of the farm who find it impossible or impracticable to take the regular four-year course leading to a degree.

Full high school standing is not a necessary entrance requirement for the occupational course. The desire to learn the latest in practical and scientific agriculture is held by the college instructors to be more important than academic training.

Occupational students will receive lectures from the same instructors as the regular students. They will have full use of the splendidly equipped laboratories and library.

The faculty has planned a well-balanced course, which includes classroom instruction, laboratory practice, as well as practical demonstrations in the barns, greenhouse, test plots, orchard and garden.

An interesting descriptive folder describing the occupational courses has been prepared by the faculty of agriculture. Any boy or girl interested may get a copy by simply dropping a postcard to Dean Clement, College of Agriculture, Vancouver, B.C.

United States District Attorney Brings Startling Facts Before Canadian Authorities

(Special to The Colonist. Copyright, 1930.)

BOSTON, Mass., June 18.—Declaring that the investigation of the white slave traffic in New England, which has been in progress for the past year, has revealed the fact that thousands of young Canadian girls have been brought to this section in connection with the racket, the United States district attorney, Frederick Tarr, today sent a communication to Ottawa requesting that the United States authorities be brought into the white slave traffic here in New England. Many of them drift into New York and Pennsylvania, but very few go back to Canada," declared the United States attorney. "You would be surprised at the number of young women of excellent connection, education and refinement who are snared into the net and brought across the border."

"Perhaps the fact that a racketeer can get $500 in cash, and in some cases $1,000, for a beautiful and decent girl is not generally known."

"They seldom bother girls who live at home. It is generally the girl who runs out."

"Most of them are French-Canadian, yet there is a surprising number from New Brunswick and Ontario. It has appeared to us that authorities on both sides of the border might watch the situation a little closer."

Emperor Sends Welcoming Gift To Wakatsuki

TOKYO, June 18.—Emperor Hirohito today sent as a welcoming gift a twenty-gallon cask of sake or rice wine to Riejiro Wakatsuki, head of Japan's delegation to the recent London Naval Conference. Wakatsuki returned to Tokyo today from London.

The gift was sent to Wakatsuki's home and was regarded as signifying imperial approbation of the delegates' work at London. Wakatsuki is noted as a connoisseur of rice wine.

The reason why truth is stranger than fiction is that there is less of it on the market.

DATA SOUGHT ON SEASON OF LAMB ARRIVALS

Effort Is to Be Made to Regulate Supply in Interests of Demand for Meat

EARLY LAMBS IN GOOD DEMAND

Dr. W. R. Gunn, livestock commissioner for the Province of British Columbia, is gathering data with respect to the production of sheep in the province, and the times when the breeding takes place. The information is being collected by means of questionnaires sent out, and when he has obtained this data Dr. Gunn will be in a position better than before to offer advice to the breeders with respect to the best times for the breeding of sheep in this province.

This is a subject along which he has already offered the breeders valuable information believing that with the mild climate of the Pacific seaboard, that the sheep breeders on the Coast would be well advised to have the lambs appear very early in the season. This would not be difficult on Vancouver Island and elsewhere.

WOULD REGULATE SUPPLY

He points out that breeding could be brought about any month in the year as far as the climatic conditions are concerned.

His advice is that there could be breeding of lambs in February or earlier, if necessary, so that not only would the coast market be served, but also the early lamb meat market filled as far East as Calgary and beyond, where the time for the appearance of the lambs would have to be much later in safety, owing to the cold conditions.

Advice will be offered to the parts of the province where sheep breeding is followed, as to what would be the best months to have the lambs appear, so that there might be a continuous market filled.

WOULD HELP INDUSTRY

This would facilitate the task of the breeders, and also the meat companies, co-operation being sought between the two classes concerned. It would overcome in large part the difficulty that is complained of by breeders at the present time, with regard to Southern lambs being introduced to compete with the local production.

MR. D. B. PLUNKETT NOMINATED

The Federal election campaign in this constituency received a fillip by the presence here of Mr. R. B. Bennett, the Conservative leader, and his masterful speech at the Royal Victoria Theatre. New interest has been added to it by the nomination last evening of Mr. D. B. Plunkett, the former member for Victoria of the House of Commons, as the Conservative candidate again. Mr. Plunkett's services to the community have been handsomely recognized by the unanimity of the nomination. In view of the manner in which he has acquitted himself there could have been no other choice. In the vernacular he has "made good." It remains only for Victorians as a whole, having insured that their names are on the voters' list, to rally to his support. He has proved himself throughout his membership of the House of Commons a most active worker on behalf of the interests of Victoria. The finest reward our citizens can bestow on him is to re-elect him by a thumping majority on July 28.

SUPERVISING PLAYGROUNDS

The movement which owes its inception to the Boys' Department of the Y.M.C.A. and which has as its object the systematic supervision of the public playgrounds of the city, is one that will enlist immediate public sympathy. The majority of the public-spirited organizations have already given the proposal staunch support. There is a sum of $300 available by vote of the City Council for such supervision. The service clubs have agreed to provide $225. Those responsible, who desire the creation of a permanent Summer Playground Supervision Commission, estimate that $1,000 in all will be required. In other words, an appeal is being made for $500 to add to the subscriptions for the purpose that are already assured.

With this sum available supervisors will be appointed for Beacon Hill Park, Central Park and Victoria West Park during the months of July and August. Their duty will be to organize games for the children, to encourage them in their recreations, and possibly even to arrange for competitions. It is felt that through such supervision not only will the popularity of the city's playing grounds be increased, but that also there will be new interests fostered among the children which will improve their health and add to their enjoyment of the summer holidays. At present, and especially during the summer months, too many children are permitted to use the streets as their playgrounds. This involves danger to life and limb. With organized supervision and the development of games and sports in the parks it is certain that the children can be attracted from the streets to those places especially set aside for their recreation.

The Y.M.C.A. is to be commended for having inaugurated this movement. Its popularity is increased by the immediate support it has received from all other organizations to whom the proposal has been explained. Three of those prominently identified with what is proposed are Alderman W. Strath, Mr. Ira Dilworth, Principal of the High School, and Mr. F. V. Shoemaker, secretary of the Boys' Department of the Y.M.C.A. On the commission of supervision for the playgrounds various city bodies are to be represented. In the meantime an appeal is being made for $500. This newspaper, which heartily endorses the aim of movement as a development of civic betterment, will be pleased to receive and acknowledge subscriptions towards the fund.

BURNS OR DUNBAR?

If recent reports from the Old Country can be depended on we are on the eve of a controversy which is likely to rage violently in every part of the Empire where there are enough Scotsmen to form a St. Andrew's Society or a Burns Club. In order to relieve the suspense and let the reader know the worst let it be understood at once that the burning question that is to divide, that indeed has already begun to divide Scottish people everywhere, is one that involves great national considerations as well as principles of literary criticism. Briefly, the question is this: Is Robert Burns the national poet of Scotland, or does William Dunbar possess the true, the legitimate, the authentic title to that proud eminence?

It will be apparent at once that there are involved here questions of both fact and theory. What has Dunbar done that gives him a high rank among Scottish writers, and what are the principles which should guide us in evaluating his work and his claim to the Scottish primacy in poetry? Certain it is that the claims of the Dunbar faction cannot be ignored or swept aside with a careless wave of the hand. The argument runs substantially as follows: Dunbar is one of the small group of Scottish poets who deserve the adjective "great." It is confidently asserted that the spirit of his poems is essentially Scottish, and that in quality and variety of kind they are far greater than those of Burns. They say that, linguistically and otherwise, Dunbar is the Scots poet and that Burns, by comparison, is to all intents and purposes an English one.

It is sometimes said that the Scots have ever exhibited a certain stubbornness and even bigotry in adhering to their own national usages, customs, and habits of thought and speech, but if the Dunbar theory is right the nation has not shown anything like enough of that attitude, but on the contrary has been only too ready to adopt ideas from foreign sources. In passing it may be observed that at the time of the union of the two countries the Scots insisted on the retention of their own law, and provided for the security of their national church as a state institution. Later on, however, they accepted the Westminster Confession as the creed of the Church of Scotland, a creed which was made in England by the English Puritans. So much for law and religion. What has been their attitude in language and literature? Let the supporters of the Dunbar theory answer.

There is no doubt, they say, that Scots is a literary medium superior in many respects to English, "in general expressiveness, in movement and color, and in the subtler accommodation of the craft of letters"; and yet that there is no gainsaying the inexplicable fact that Chaucer is taught in Scottish schools and not Dunbar. Scotland is "perhaps the only nation in the world that has voluntarily agreed to the almost entire exclusion of its own language, literature and history from its schools in favor of another country of very different traditions."

It appears that the case for Dunbar rests on two grounds: that Dunbar "soared to far greater imaginative heights than Burns, who was almost completely lacking in the brave transitory things of great poetry; and that apart altogether from the respective merits of the two men no literature should be wholly dominated for a prolonged period by any simple figure as Scots literature has been by Burns."

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP IN U.S.A.

Church membership is any criterion the Americans cannot be described as an irreligious people. That membership is being well sustained with the years; in fact latest statistics show that out of every 100 persons over 13 years of age 55 are church members. This shows no diminution from the figures of ten or twenty years ago. In that country there are 212 separate denominations. There are 332,000 churches and 44,380,000 members. The Sunday Schools have an enrollment of 21,000,000. Annual church expenditures are $817,000,000.

While there are so many denominations in the United States the vast majority of church membership is confined to some twenty-four of these. The leadership in numbers belongs to the Roman Catholic Church with 13,000,000 members over 13 years of age. The Methodist Episcopal Church occupies second place, but at a considerable distance behind with its 3,700,000 adult members. The Southern Baptist Convention has 3,300,000; the Methodist Episcopal Church South over 2,600,000; and the Negro Baptists about the same. Of the others the Protestant Episcopal Church, the Disciples of Christ and the Northern Baptist Convention have from 1,000,000 to 2,000,000 adult members. The United Lutheran Church in America and the Congregational Church have each in the neighborhood of 900,000 members. Women predominate in church-goers there being five of them to four men. The figures published by the Institute of Social Religious Research are accompanied by the comment that where the suicide rate is high, church membership is low.

German enterprise with the steamships Bremen and Europa has spurred on British shipbuilders to new efforts to regain the blue ribbon of the Atlantic. The Cunard Company has now decided to build an Atlantic liner which will cost upwards of $25,000,000. It will carry 4,000 passengers and a crew of 800. The speed is expected to be 30 knots and the displacement 75,000 tons. Such a vessel, if it fulfils expectations, will have no difficulty in recovering for Britain the record now held by the Bremen. The new liner is to be built by Messrs. John Brown & Co., of Clydebank.

One of the greatest of menaces to traffic on the roads is a glaring headlight. The Government, really concerned about the safety of human life and property, will regulate such lights. The courtesy implied by the dimming of headlights by motorists passing one another is too much honored in the breach. It ought to be the subject of legal enactment.

PETITION

Suffer me not to grave with other dead:
Nor waste one copper penny on a stone.
Let me go down into the earth alone
And solitary to her sweet dark bed.
Seek on some hill a wild thorn-apple tree
Growing with grass no scythe has ever kissed,
Where root is all unknown to any tryst
Of worm and flesh. There dig and bury me.

There to make company of sap and sod,
Long dreamed and long desired. There at length
To lift these million atoms up to God
In clover fragrance and in thistle strength.
In boughs that whisper blossoms wide and high
And write thorn apple-wise upon the sky.
—Barbara Young, in The New York Times.

This is the part of a great man, after he has maturely weighed all circumstances, to punish the guilty, to spare the many, and in every state of fortune not to depart from an upright, virtuous conduct.—Cicero.

Knowledge is the only fountain both of the love and the principles of human liberty.—Daniel Webster.

Tells of Japanese Court Life in the Tenth Century

The Sketch Book of the Lady Sei Shonagon, translated from the Japanese by Nobuko Kobayashi, with an introduction by L. Adams Beck. Wisdom of the East Series. John Murray, London, 1930.

Nine hundred years ago a little Japanese lady-in-waiting to the Empress kept a diary, which has been miraculously preserved when much of the literature of its period has been lost. Two important works remain: the "Genji Monogatari" by the Lady Murasaki, and the "Makura Zoshi," or "Sketch Book," of the Lady Sei Shonagon. Both of these picture Japanese court life of the tenth century. But the former is a novel, and it describes things not as they were, perhaps, but rather as the Lady Murasaki would have liked them to be. Sei Shonagon's book, on the other hand, consists of a series of reminiscences, entries in diary form, and since it was written with no thought of publication, it is a record of facts.

About two weeks previous to the 24th of May, P. G. George, chairman of the band committee, telephoned me with reference to the band, and I told him I thought we would be able to take part in the parade. Owing to sickness we were not able to get a band together that would justify us in turning out, and I notified him to that effect a few days before the parade. We would, we have done in the past, hired outside musicians to help us, except for the fact that no union players were available unless arrangements were made for the 16th to turn out. Our bandmaster was also unable to be with us.

These facts were communicated to Mr. George by letter as well as by telephone, and if Mr. Timmis had wished he could have found out the truth of the matter before making incorrect statements.

So far as the $100 was concerned, that was never mentioned or expected. That there would be some remuneration was understood, but that had nothing to do with the question. We have always given our help whenever possible to every civic celebration, and have played in the parks and other public concerts for no remuneration whatever. I will not ask Mr. Timmis to retract his statements, for if he were fair enough to do so now, he would have been honest enough to have taken the trouble to find out what he was talking about before he made them.

MR. G. E. LIGHTHEART DIES IN VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER, June 18.—Mr. George Edward Lightheart, well-known Vancouver apartment house owner and business man, died Tuesday evening in the General Hospital after a short illness. He was stricken suddenly last Thursday.

Mr. Lightheart, who was in his forty-seventh year, had for many years been identified with a number of business enterprises here. He first arrived in Vancouver in 1902 and after several trips to the Yukon, settled here permanently.

He was born in Collingwood, Ontario.

Letters to the Editor

As per the letter to the Editor of the 18th inst. received from the Vancouver Fire Department, I wish to reply to the remarks of Mr. Timmis as published in your paper of June 11.

About two weeks previous to the 24th of May, P. G. George, chairman of the band committee, telephoned me with reference to the band, and I told him I thought we would be able to take part in the parade. Owing to sickness we were not able to get a band together that would justify us in turning out, and I notified him to that effect a few days before the parade.

We would, we have done in the past, hired outside musicians to help us, except for the fact that no union players were available unless arrangements were made for the 16th to turn out.

Our bandmaster was also unable to be with us.

These facts were communicated to Mr. George by letter as well as by telephone, and if Mr. Timmis had wished he could have found out the truth of the matter before making incorrect statements.

So far as the $100 was concerned, that was never mentioned or expected. That there would be some remuneration was understood, but that had nothing to do with the question.

We have always given our help whenever possible to every civic celebration, and have played in the parks and other public concerts for no remuneration whatever.

I will not ask Mr. Timmis to retract his statements, for if he were fair enough to do so now, he would have been honest enough to have taken the trouble to find out what he was talking about before he made them.

C. GWYER,
President, V.F.D. Band,

The Rhyming Optimist

By Aline Michaels

THE CITY
Unceasing turmoil, endless striving
Where men of all degrees and Confusion greets the quickened eye
As sound and motion on the senses
Is it a monster without kindly heart,
The city, where Youth brings its all to spend,
Bearing rich gifts of patient skill
and art
And asking only justice in the end?

It stands, instead, a triumph shaped in stone,
Enduring long beyond the builders'
time;
A challenge left by mighty men alone
To all who follow in their ways subtle,
And he who reads aright the city's soul
Finds inspiration there to gain his goal.

COLLIERIES PRODUCTION FALLS AGAIN

May Figures Show Smaller Amount of Coal Raised Than in Month of April

FIGURES FOR ISLAND MINES

The production of coal for the province of British Columbia has again fallen lower in the month of May than in the preceding month. There has been produced in the month of May 136,236 tons of coal as compared with 156,216 tons in April. The April production, however, was somewhat higher than the month of March, when the province put out 147,419 tons.

The production of Vancouver Island collieries was 76,618 tons for May, while in April it was 76,582 tons.

Of this production the Canadian Collieries turned out 34,666 tons, divided as follows among the collieries: Comox 20,981, Extension 9,457, and Wellington No. 5 4,228 tons.

The Western Fuel Company operated from No. 1 mine only, producing 21,700 tons.

The other collieries Granby, 12,709; Little Ash, 355; Lantzville colliery 292; Canadian Iron & Coal Company 690; Giggis mine 115, and Niddick mine 112 tons.

The Niddick-Princeton district produced during the month of May 11,924 tons. The East Kootenay district, the Crow's Nest mines, produced 56,694 tons, which is practically the same as in April, when the month previous to these mines.

There was a production of coke in the Coal Creek and Michelmine of 4,973 tons, compared with 5,344 in the month of April.

OPERATIONS OF FIRM RELATED

Over $170,000,000 Involved in Business of Solloway, Mills & Co. in Last Six Months of 1929

(Canadian Press)

CALGARY, June 18.—More than $170,000,000 was involved in the business of Solloway, Mills & Company, Limited, during the six months ending December 31, 1929, it was revealed today in the hearing of the conspiracy charges against the heads of the brokerage concern.

A statement by Mr. L. L. Masson, secretary-treasurer, Toronto, who was on the witness stand this afternoon, told of the vast business carried on by the firm.

In the evidence of Mr. Masson, it was brought out that Solloway had bought out Mills' interest in the firm in December, 1928. Previously to that, witness said that they had been on an equal basis. He told Mr. A. A. McGillivray, K.C., chief defence counsel, that he did not know of any time when Mills had been called into conferences, and that he never received any orders from Mills.

Mr. Masson declared that there was $170,356,055.21 involved in the six months' business with clients, ending December 31, 1929. This business was done in Calgary, Toronto, Vancouver, New York, and Buffalo. The value of stock delivered to clients during the first four months of 1930 amounted to 11,732,945.95, he said. In the grain business there was an average of sixty-three trades per day, involving 105,000 bushels.

RECOGNIZE WORK OF MR. O'NEILL

Retiring Principal of Tolmie School Appreciated by Colleagues—Presentations to Prospective Brides

A series of pleasing functions marked the approaching close of the summer term at Tolmie School, Cloverdale, yesterday afternoon. A banquet had been arranged by the teachers and the usual fare that accompanies afternoon tea was a neatly placed and flowers prettily spread on the table. While all the teachers and the guests were enjoying a happy time together, the first surprise the party received was when Miss Beane, a former member of the staff, arose to make the presentation to Mr. John O'Neill, principal of Tolmie School, who is leaving after seventeen years of service there.

Miss Beane said she was glad to have this honor conferred upon her, being associated with the school for many years, and representing members of the staff both past and present. She asked Mr. O'Neill to accept this small token of their esteem as a parting gift. Mr. O'Neill, although severing his connection with the teaching profession, Miss Beane said, she felt sure he would still remain a staunch friend of the school and it was his kindness and consideration for them that had prompted the giving of their small gift, hoping it would be a comfort to him for many years to come. Miss Beane then handed Mr. O'Neill an ebony silver-mounted walking cane with the inscription "John O'Neill, June 18, 1890."

Mr. O'Neill in replying, thanked the members of the staff for their kindness and said that their gift would always remind him of the pleasant associations he had had with them during the past years, and, although retiring from the teaching profession, he would always remember those with whom he had worked professionally for so long a time.

Two more pleasing surprises were still in store for those around the tea tables, the next presentation being in the nature of a silver cream and sugar stand, presented by the members of the staff to Miss Ella Kersey, teacher of Grade II, who is leaving to become a popular bride-elect, and another pretty gift, consisting of a silver flower basket, to Miss Annabelle Service, teacher of Grade VI, who is also soon to be a bride.

Both teachers feelingly expressed their thanks to the members of the staff and stated that, although severing their connection with Tolmie School, they would always remember the happy associations they had had with their fellow-teachers.

Great credit is due to the lady members of the staff for their work in carrying out all arrangements to a complete success.

TRADING POLICY

Another employee of the brokerage house, Mr. G. W. Slaas, was also questioned by Mr. A. L. Smith, K.C., Crown counsel. Mr. Slaas, in reply to questions by counsel, declared that the trading policy of Solloway, Mills & Company, Limited, was "short," and he told Mr. Smith that he believed I. W. C. Solloway, one of the heads of the concern, was aware of the "short" position. Witness admitted discussing the position with Solloway, but declared that Mills had nothing to do with the affairs of the company while he was employed by it.

Mr. Slaas declared that Government officials had examined all the books of the company.

Mr. G. H. Salter, one-time assistant trader of the Vancouver office, testified that Solloway, Mills & Co. dealt with the firm of Denby, Dickinson & Greathed in a somewhat different manner than with other brokers. A black line was put on books with this firm, and witness said that this was known to him as meaning a cross with the firm.

FUT MARK ON SLIPS

Mr. James Graham, employee of Denby, Dickinson & Greathed, was the next witness. He said he was employed answering the telephone and writing slips for the trader.

"Some employee whose name you don't know asked you to put a mark on these slips, you say?" Mr. McGillivray asked witness.

"Yes," witness replied.

"You didn't think there was anything crooked about it?" defence counsel questioned.

"No, I didn't even know what it was for."

WOULD MAKE MILLIONS

Belief that if a deal could be arranged between the Home Oil Company and the Mill City Company millions of dollars would be made for Solloway, Mills & Co. was expressed in a letter to I. W. C. Solloway from Harvey Mills, dated November 5, 1929, which was read in court today.

The letter, in part, was as follows: "50,000 shares of Associated stock is the Dallas base for the Home company. I think it will be only a matter of time before the Home company will come to you to make a deal on Mill City which should make us three or four millions."

"BIG MONEY MAKER"

In another letter from Mills to Solloway, dated September 7, 1928, the opinion was expressed that the Calgary office "should prove a big money maker this winter."

In a letter from Solloway to Mills, the former referred to the sale of 10,000 shares of Associated stock at 60c a share. He stated that he was anxious "that Lowery does not get wise to this."

Reading of correspondence between the two officials of the company by A. L. Smith, K.C., was only permitted following strong objections made by Mr. Frank Davidson, K.C., defence counsel. Mr. McGillivray contended that as only copies of the letters were submitted in court, and as these were not signed, they did not constitute evidence.

PLAYGROUNDS PLAN PRAISED

COMMITTEE OF CITIZEN ORGANIZATIONS MAKES READY TO INITIATE SYSTEM

Public Subscription of Amount Required to Complete Budget This Year Is Now Sought

Organized supervision by trained instructors for Victoria playgrounds this summer awaits only the completion of funds sought to carry out this purpose. It was explained by Alderman W. T. Straith yesterday in commending the plan to be initiated by the boys' work committee of the Y.M.C.A., with the assistance of other local organizations.

A citizens' committee is to be struck to insure the success of the project, under which a small corps of young men and women would be specially trained for the work of supervising city playgrounds. Initiating games and generally improving playtime facilities at city parks.

A start is to be made this year at Beacon Hill, Central Park and at Victoria West Park. It is planned, as soon as funds are in hand to carry on the work. Towards this purpose the sum of $300, normally spent by the city in part-time supervision of the parks, may become available, and $225 has been promised by the Service Club Council on the condition that a like sum be raised from other sources.

COMMITTEE OF CONTROL

Representation on the citizens' committee to control the scheme, it is suggested, will include members from the City Council, the School Board, the Service Club Council and the Local Council of Women. Mr. Vivian Shoemaker, boys' work secretary of the Y.M.C.A., Mr. Ira D. Worth, principal of Victoria High School, and a strong committee of those interested in the better playground movement are pushing the proposals in an effort to secure an early start on the plan.

Public assistance in raising the necessary funds is to be solicited in a campaign during the next two weeks, said Mr. Straith who, as a member of the committee, is interested in seeing an immediate start made on organized playground supervision.

Subscription lists will be available at the offices of The Colonist and The Times. Those interested in the scheme may help materially by contributing to the funds required to set it in motion.

CITY APPEALS TO CONVENTIONISTS

Reliance Life Insurance Company Officials Expresses Appreciation of Enthusiasm

Mr. E. G. McCormack, vice-president of the Reliance Life Insurance Company, of Pittsburgh, expressed the sentiments of the Eastern conventionists in Victoria yesterday when he stated, "I have traveled a lot, but I have yet to see any place that has anything on this city in beauty of surroundings. We are all sold on Victoria."

Mr. McCormack stated that the company, organized twenty-seven years ago, now has $470,000,000 worth of life insurance in force. The assets of the company are $70,000,000.

There are six head office officials of the Reliance Life Insurance Company here, including Mr. W. L. Wilhoite, superintendent of agencies for the Eastern division.

This afternoon the delegates to the convention will leave for their respective homes in Washington, Oregon, California, Colorado, Texas, Utah and Nebraska.

TRUE BILL GIVEN AGAINST KERSHAW

The Crown came to a temporary halt in the car finance cases yesterday, after the acquittal of William N. Tompkins on a charge of false pretence, and the quashing of an indictment against the Consolidated Motors, Victoria, Limited, the latter on motion by Mr. R. C. Lowe and Mr. A. D. MacFarlane, K.C., which was assented to by Mr. Justice Gregory in the afternoon.

Stanley E. Wallis, charged jointly with W. N. Tompkins, was convicted by the trial jury which freed Tompkins, and was remanded in custody. Tompkins was discharged in respect to the case heard yesterday, but notified to stay within call, if required by the Crown later.

The grand jury returned a true bill against John Kershaw, charged with the theft of $770 in cash and some cheques from the Sisters of St. Ann. The jurors were discharged after making a presentation quoted elsewhere.

Mr. A. M. Brown, charged with three counts on an indictment alleging theft from a boat at Galliano Island.

CAR CASES HELD

The remainder of the car finance cases were held over, pending some further announcement by the Crown. The petit jury panel was instructed to report at 2:30 p.m. today.

The Wallis and Tompkins case came to a close at 2:35 p.m., when the trial jury reported a verdict of "guilty" against Wallis, and one of "not guilty" against Tompkins. The jury had retired at 12:05 p.m., but recessed for luncheon before reporting their verdict. Addresses by Mr. A. M. ## HOUSE BATTLES ALL NIGHT LONG

British Commons Finally Passes Clause in Finance Bill Sponsored by Chancellor of Exchequer

LONDON, June 18.—After having been tied up for more than twenty-one hours in a wrangle over the Finance Bill the House of Commons adjourned at noon today with the passage of a clause of the budget for which Rt. Hon. Philip Snowden, Chancellor of the Exchequer, had been struggling with his characteristic grimness and determination. The vote on the clause was 222 to 90. The House battled all night long, sometimes bitterly, over the bill. Exchanges between Mr. Winston Churchill, former Conservative Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Mr. Snowden, a clause of whose present bill was in the balance, were frequent.

It was a dogged contest, the present Chancellor yielding no ground to his adversaries.

The bone of contention was a clause dealing with the powers of special commissioners of income tax to inquire into share holdings.

Well-Known Educationist Is Appointed

Dr. Henry Suzzallo, former president of the University of Washington, will succeed Dr. Henry S. Pritchett as president of the Carnegie Foundation for the advancement of teaching, on August 1.

Dr. Suzzallo, during the time he resided in Seattle, was a frequent visitor to Victoria, and occasionally spoke here. He was highly regarded by the administrators of the neighboring State, and in fact was in charge of public affairs when one Governor was dying, but when the present Governor was elected difficulties arose, and Dr. Suzzallo was removed from office, after a controversy in which several of the regents were involved.

Dr. Suzzallo is now director of President Hoover's advisory committee of education, and has been connected for some time with the Carnegie Foundation. Dr. Pritchett retires at his own request, after twenty-five years' service.

A certain John Jones had been a twenty-years' abstainer, but fell from the ways of grace and worshipped the vicious god with the fervor of a convert.

Feeling the need of recuperation he sent his boy to an adjacent hotel for a bottle of whisky.

"But," cried the hotel proprietor, "who is it for?"

"For my father," said the boy, "Nonsense! Your father is a total abstainer, and has been to my knowledge for longer than you've lived."

"Well, at all events, he sent me for it."

"What does he want it for?"

"To let you into a secret," said the boy, ashamed to tell the truth, "he's going fishing and he wants the cork to use for a float."

MOVEMENT IS DIMINISHING

TRIBESMEN STILL PROVE TROUBLESOME

BOMBAY, June 18.—An official statement covering the Indian situation for last week, indicates the Government believes the unrest caused by the national campaign is diminishing.

"There are signs in some parts of the country," says the document, "that although members of the Congress are in no way relaxing their efforts, misgivings have increased regarding their aims and methods among many who were at first inclined to view the civil disobedience movement with toleration, if not with approval."

"Active opposition on the part of those who frankly disapprove of it is steadily increasing with the belief it is doomed to failure."

The statement declares aerial operations have been successful in driving back individual forces of wild tribesmen on the Northwest Frontier, but admits that there is no material change regarding the general unrest in the Peshawar area. This frontier has been unsettled for a long time.

The Government announced that propaganda was being actively spread among the frontier tribesmen. One method was the appearance among the tribes of "emissaries" carrying baskets full of bloodstained clothing (in some cases secured with the assistance of local butchers), and tokens of alleged wholesale massacre.

MINERS GIVE WELCOME TO CARAVANEERS

where a Prince George machine landed on the swift current of the Fraser with a welcoming delegation.

The seaplane, the first to alight at Quenell, landed at the same point at which the first automobile reached the town disembarked from the ferry nineteen years ago.

The identical auto was there as part of the caravan to greet the plane.

The German pilot of the plane, W. A. Joers, met Constable B. M. B. Smith, who is accompanying the party. They fought in the air over Vimy.

OLD-TIME WELCOME

On Tuesday night the caravan received a rousing old-time miners' welcome from historic Barkerville, most picturesque town in British Columbia, and once the centre of the Cariboo gold rush.

Prospectors from the creek with the residents of the town staged an impromptu dance in the ancient theatre, where in the old days the gold-laden miners waited and two-stepped with the German dance hall girls.

Music was supplied by an ancient concertina and service was rendered from the street through the teeming rain from Kells' famous hotel by six guests.

Until the dawn the single street of Barkerville rang with the sound of music and merriment, for this was a great occasion in that valley amid the golden hills.

The square dances of another time were revived, with Hon. W. A. McKenzie, Minister of Mines, calling them off in masterly style to the great delight of the natives and the confusion of some of the more modern visitors.

All the well-known characters of Barkerville were there—Joel Stevens, called "The Pack Rat," because of his habit of collecting a weird assortment of junk in his little cabin on Williams Creek; Mrs. House, who came a year or two before the fire which wiped out the town sixty-two years ago; Dear Song, the old Chinese cook, who walked in from New Westminster forty-three years ago; and Fred Tregillus, who is opening up a new quartz mine of his own; the young Chinaman who was born in Barkerville and never saw another town, and many others, who think that their little row of cabins beside the worked-over trailings is the finest place on earth.

All of them were introduced to Premier Talmie by Mr. McKenzie, who is well-known throughout Cariboo. The ministers were photographed panning gold in Williams Creek with some of the prospectors who pan it in real earnest for their living.

The journey into Barkerville was something of an adventure, for snow had fallen in the mountains and lay two inches thick upon the ground. In one place a swollen stream had deluged the road in two feet of water, through which the cars waded in clouds of spray. But, despite the recent torrential rains, all the highways of the North are in excellent condition, and there has been no car trouble. Even the 1909 model Buick, which was the first automobile to enter Hazelton nineteen years ago, came to Hazelton without mishap.

PICKERING, Ont., June 18.—Mr. W. H. Moore, chairman of the advisory board on tariff and taxation, refused to comment today on a report that he had resigned from the tariff board to enter the election campaign as Liberal candidate in the riding of Ontario. Mr. Moore refused to confirm or deny the report.

FINE EXHIBITION HELD BY SCHOOL

Big Field Is Covered by Artistic and Constructive Work of Lamson Street Pupils

Yesterday the annual exhibition of the pupils of Lamson Street School was held. The exhibition is the most remarkable of any that has yet taken place, both by reason of the number of exhibits and also of their quality.

Grade 1 exhibits were a number of models in plasticine, cardboard models of dolls' house furniture and a number of crayon drawings. Grade 2 showed some delightful plasticine flowers of flowers and pastel drawings. Grade 3 exhibited a number of conventional designs and a lifelike model of a cotton plantation.

Grade 4 was remarkable for some advanced crayon studies of still life, besides a number of painted bonbon dishes and artistic writing pads. Grade 5 was responsible for many beautiful water color paintings of flowers and it was at this stage that carefully printed mottoes became in evidence.

Grade 6 showed a number of low relief maps of South America, Europe and the Pacific Coast of Canada. These were made from a mixture of flour, water and salt, and treated with water color paint. Grade 7 had produced other maps, painted plates and some charming plasticine models of Egyptian designs.

The domestic science department showed a number of beautifully sewn garments, while all branches of carpentry were exhibited in the manual training section.

Ronald was staying with an aunt who held strong views on how "little children" should behave. He was obviously unhappy.

"You're homesick," said his aunt. "No I'm not," replied Ronald. "I'm here-sick."

CANADIAN WRITER CALLED BY DEATH

Tribute Paid to Late Miss Ermattinger Fraser, Prominent in Literary Circles

VANCOUVER, June 18.—Miss A. Ermattinger Fraser, Point Grey Road, who won the friendship and gratitude of many children as a teacher and the respect of literary people as an author, died at Vancouver General Hospital on Tuesday night, after several weeks' illness. She was instructor in English literature and history at King Edward High School for many years.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday at Canadian Memorial Church.

In her avocation as a writer she gained much recognition and a novel, "The Drums of Landray," will be published shortly. Her second novel, dealing with the period of the admission of the War of Independence, was left uncompleted at her death.

Miss Fraser was born in Kingston, Ont., educated privately and at Queen's University. From university she came with her family to Victoria to teach for a time in the city. Later she went to Seattle to be appointed librarian of Lincoln High School. When the school board of that city demanded that all teachers be naturalized she resigned and returned to Vancouver.

Miss Fraser is survived by her father, Mr. Donald Fraser, and three sisters, Miss Kate and Miss May, residing in Victoria, and Mrs. L. C. Newlands, Oswego, Oregon.

Crowds Attend Hatley Park Garden Party

The annual garden party of the Florence Nightingale Chapter, I.O.D.E., which is held each year at Hatley Park, through the kindness of Mrs. D. S. Macdonald, attracted a large number of visitors yesterday, cars arriving throughout the day from 10 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock last evening. An ideal summer day made the outing even more delightful than was anticipated, and the gardens looked their loveliest with masses of Summer flowers, the lakes, with their lovely islands and rose arbors.

Mrs. K. Symons was general convener of the fête, and Mrs. G. Lillie and Mrs. G. P. Player were in charge of the beautiful Japanese garden. The tea arrangements were particularly delightful, long tables, decked with bowls of exquisite roses and columbine being set under the great trees south of the Italian garden, and Mrs. Catterall, assisted by members of the chapter, was in charge. Ice cream was sold by Mrs. McAllister, Mrs. Lenfesty and Mrs. Oliver, and Mrs. P. W. Baylis was in charge of the guessing contest.

Mrs. Ernest Eve, Mrs. F. C. Hall, Jr., and Miss Nan Eve had charge of the attractive candy stall, which was arranged in a rustic summer-house in the Japanese garden overlooking the lakes, with their lovely borders of iris and wisteria-covered tea house.

During the afternoon the Victoria Girls' Band played a programme of musical selections on the croquet lawn below the terrace, their bright scarlet and white uniforms adding a gay note of color to the pretty scene.

Financially as well as socially, the party proved a great success, nearly $500 being realized for the chapter's funds. The nightgown was won by Mr. J. Solari, of the New England Hotel, and Mrs. Tinker won the slip.

ALLIES CHAPTER TAG FOR SOLARIUM

The Allies Chapter, I.O.D.E., will hold a Queen Alexandra rose tag day throughout the North Saanich and the Victoria area, in aid of the Mill Bay Solarium. All donations will go towards the fund of the chapter, to furnish warm clothing during the coming Winter for those children whose parents are unable to provide for them.

The organizers hope that residents of Sidney and North Saanich will respond generously as their means permit, as the need for this work is urgent, and the Solarium has many children to clothe.

Owing to the district being large it would be a great assistance to those who have kindly offered to tag if contributors would have their donations ready, thus saving much time.

Varied Activities of Women

Popular Couple Married At St. Andrew's Church

One of the most charming of the June weddings was solemnized last evening at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, when in the presence of a large congregation of friends, Margaret Gertrude, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan E. Campbell, of Linden Avenue, became the bride of Mr. George Dawson Tyson, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tyson, of Redcroft, Hampden Park, Eastbourne, England. Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell officiated. The church had been artistically decorated by Miss Mona Miller and friends of the bride, with masses of lovely summer flowers, in shades of pink, blue and white. The pulpit was banked with roses, delphiniums and foxgloves and white syringa gave an additional bridal touch to the effect. The guest pews were lined with clusters of pink roses and nepeta, and baskets of flowers hung from the pillars of the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride made a beautiful picture as she entered the church to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mr. Jesse Longfield at the organ. Her wedding gown of egg-shell georgette and lace was made with long lace sleeves, the bodice, cut with a V-neck, being attached to a closely-fitted hip yoke, from which hung the graceful skirt, ankle length in front, and deep flounces of lace at either side hanging to the floor. The back of the skirt formed a train and the yoke was ornamented with intricate design. Her veil of egg-shell Brussels net was arranged with a circlet of orange blossoms and was worn rather high across her head, falling in filmy folds in a long train. Her shower bouquet was composed of bridal roses and lilies of the valley.

BRIDAL ATTENDANTS
She was attended by four charming bridesmaids, her three sisters, the Misses Mary, Helen and Jean Campbell, and Miss Helen Forman. Their frocks were fashioned alike, of Madonna blue flat crepe, made with plain sleeveless bodices, and the skirts arranged with a deep pleatum at the back, which hung below the hem at either side. Scarf ends of the material hung from the shoulder, which was also adorned with a flower made in the blue flat crepe. Their hats, of blue lace straw, matching the frocks, were turned off the face and had net trimmings. The only trimming was a spray of blue velvet flowers across the back. They carried shower bouquets of mauve and pink sweet peas and delphiniums.

Mr. Sydney D'Esterre was best man and the ushers were Messrs. Jack Hutchinson, Alan McNally and Donald Campbell, the bride's brother.

RECEPTION HELD
Following the service a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the bride and groom, standing beneath a floral arch from which hung a wedding bell, received the good wishes of their many friends. They were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Campbell, who wore a smart gown of flowered nylon in shades of black and nasturtium with a lace coat of fine black lace. The skirt was made with flounces of the same lace and the hemline marked by a band of black nylon. Her hat, a Maud Muller model of black lace straw, had the underbrim faced with net in the same shade of nasturtium.

A handsome wedding cake adorned the supper table, and a profusion of roses and schyzanthus was used in decoration of the reception and dining room. The bride and groom left later for the Mainland, en route to Jasper Park, where they will spend their honeymoon. For traveling the bride wore a very smart four-piece ensemble of canary yellow tweed, flecked with dark brown, a yellow jumper, and the topcoat was trimmed with a handsome beige fox collar. Her hat was an Angora straw model, trimmed with a triple band of grosgrain ribbon in shades of deep yellow, brown and green.

On their return to Victoria, Mr. and Mrs. Tyson will make their home on Deal Street, Oak Bay.

JIM IS PROUD OF MARY!

"My goodness," thought Mary, after Jim had phoned that he was bringing a special guest home for dinner, "I must think up a nice meal."

Ah! baked spaghetti... that was it! She made some extra biscuit crumbs, then put some Clark's Cooked Spaghetti into her Pyrex dish.

She covered the spaghetti with the crumbs and popped the dish into the oven. She let it bake for twenty minutes while she prepared the table. Then she took it out.

And what an appetizing dish it looked!... with its sweet, tender spaghetti, luscious tomato sauce and rich, creamy cheese, inside... all ready... shh! here they come now!

When you first taste Clark's Cooked Spaghetti you'll notice something else beside the sweet, tender spaghetti and the luscious tomato sauce... something that gives it a delicious tang, oh, that's it... a rich creamy cheese flavor! It's a flavor you won't find in any other brand.

...it must be good!

Fashion Fancies

By Marie Belmont

Even the most placid stay-at-home travel at this season of the year. It's vacation time all over the world, and the fashion-conscious woman centres all her thoughts on her wardrobe which is to grace the gay and glorious playdays of Summer. Her first problem is a coat that will serve for traveling and be versatile enough to be used for other purposes. A coat of this type is illustrated above. Fashioned of dark green wool sponge, it features the one-sided shoulder cape which terminates in a scarf which is thrown casually over one shoulder. Black patent leather is used effectively on collar and cuffs and for the narrow belt.

SIDNEY GIRL IS CHARMING BRIDE

Miss Amy Livesey Becomes Bride of Mr. W. A. Beswick—Will Occupy New Home

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Holy Trinity Church, Patricia Bay, when, in the presence of a very large gathering of relatives and friends of the bride and groom, Rev. T. M. Hughes united in marriage Amy, youngest daughter of Captain and Mrs. E. Livesey, "Manor Farm," East Road, Sidney, to Mr. William Arthur Beswick, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Beswick, Bazon Bay. The church had been beautifully decorated with a profusion of summer flowers by friends of the bride.

PRETTY BRIDE
Given in marriage by her father, the bride was a picture of girlish charm in a lovely frock of ivory silk lace over a slip of duchesse satin, the simply fashioned, long, close-fitting bodice and full skirt falling in an uneven hemline of net, being caught at the left side with a cluster of lily of the valley and true lovers' knot of net. The beautiful veil of embroidered Brussels net, which formed her train, was worn in Russian cap fashion with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia rosebuds and white carnations tied with white tulle.

THREE ATTENDANTS

Attending the bride as bridesmaids were the Misses Anne and Kathleen Lorenson, attired, respectively, in frocks of rose and blue-green satin, the full circular skirts falling in long graceful folds to the floor. Wide-brimmed mohair hats to match were worn, and sheaves of shaded pink gladioli formed their bouquets.

Miss Iris Readings, in a pretty peach-colored crepe de Chine dress, acted as flower girl, carrying a basket of mauve and pink sweet peas.

The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Reg. Beswick, while Mr. Henry Hogg and Mr. H. L. Ricketts acted as ushers.

Bridal music was supplied by Mrs. J. M. Copthorne, and during the ceremony the register, Miss Rose Matthews sang "O Promise Me."

A largely attended reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, the bride and groom receiving the good wishes of their many friends on the wide lawn, standing before a background of greenery centred with a large floral arrangement. The bride was assisted in receiving by Mrs. E. Livesey, in a becoming frock of royal blue satin, and by Mrs. N. Beswick, mother of the groom, wearing a smart dress of Valhalla crepe.

Girl friends of the bride assisted in serving the refreshments from the prettily appointed tea table, centred with the three-tiered wedding cake. At either end of the table were silver vases of roses and carnations.

BEAUTIFUL GIFTS

Blue delphiniums, roses and sheaves of gladioli were used profusely in the reception rooms, where the many beautiful gifts were displayed. Among the gifts was a silver engraved cake plate from the members of the Evening Branch of the W.A., of which the bride is a member, an electric double hot-plate, suitably engraved from the staff of the Sidney Trading Company, where the bride has been employed for the past four years, and a pair of Hudson Bay blankets from the manager, and a silver cigarette case from the old executive of the North Saanich Social Club, of which the groom was a member.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Beswick left for a motor trip up the island, and upon their return they will take up residence in their new home, just completed on the East Road.

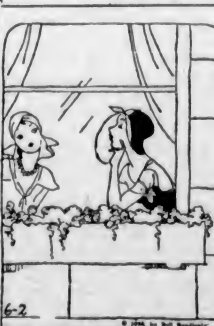

The bride traveled in a dahlia-colored crepe de Chine frock with rhinestone trimming, and beige coat and hat.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Moss and daughter, of Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse, of Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis, of Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. Folkes, Mr. and Mrs. Honor, Mrs. J. Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Johns, of Victoria.

By the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, York Place, Oak Bay, the Guild of St. Mary's will hold its annual garden fete tomorrow, from 10 to 6 o'clock. There will be clock golf and other amusements, and tea and ice cream will be served on the terrace. Messrs. Fletcher Bros. are kindly lending an Orthophonic Victrola for the afternoon.

High spots of the entertainment is the tremendous minstrel first part, with George MacFarlane and James J. Corbett alternating as interludes, and with specialties by George Olsen and his music; Victor McLaglen and Edmund Lowe, Tom Patricola, Walter Catlett, William Collier, Sr., Frank Richardson, and Richard Lewis. engagement and immediately her aunt and Plicain, aided by Nancy Morgan, a jealous woman, plan an intrigue that separates them until Fate brings about a happy understanding.

Joe Wagstaff, brilliant young stage actor, who was the star of "Billy" in New York, enacts the high spots of the entertainment, well-known and beloved screen actress, portrays the role of Lee Coleman, and Douglas Gilmore appears as Kane Plicain. The character of Nancy Morgan is entrusted to Dorothy Burgess, well remembered as "Tonia Marie" in "In Old Arizona."

Intriguing Story Occupies Screen At Columbia

Even seasoned film critics found themselves all but swept away by the tide of melody which carried "Mademoiselle from Armentieres" to a popular triumph. London and New York; they found it impossible to resist the spell, stirring so many intimate memories of "Pack Up Your Troubles," "Madison," "Hinky Dinky Parley Vous," and a succession of other wartime marching songs.

The film provides stirring pictures of the boys at the front, their optimism on the march, the humors of life in billets, their simple love affairs, and the stark realism of the trenches and big and little guns, tanks and aeroplanes hurling death across the lines.

Above all, these things have been blended into a most satisfying and romantically intriguing story.

NEW SONGS MARK HOLLYWOOD REVUE

Song, Dance and Monologue Are Included in Extravaganza At Coliseum

"The Hollywood Revue," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's musical extravaganza, will be shown at the Coliseum Theatre today.

This new musical extravaganza proves to be a sensational follow-up for the immensely popular "The Broadway Melody." Designed on the order of a sumptuous Broadway revue, it contains not only the pick of the song, dance and monologue talent from the M-G-M studio, but also a number of outstanding stage celebrities.

Twenty new songs make their appearance in this production. Sammy Lee, who staged a number of Ziegfeld shows as well as other New York musical productions, was in charge of the chorus of seventy-two carefully selected boys and girls and has turned out ensemble numbers that could not be beaten on any stage.

Tonight is concert night, and among the assisting artists are: Dorothy Burgess, soprano, rendering popular songs, and Cliff Prescott, baritone, popular radio artist.

Reddy Finds His Mouse

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

To find is not complete success. For you may find and not possess. —Reddy Fox.

Reddy Fox is quite used to disappointments. He long ago learned how to grin over a disappointment. "One may as well grin as cry," says Reddy. So he grinned, though a bit ruefully, as he left the place of the Green Meadows, where he could smell Mouse, but could find none. He tried to put out of his head all thought of Meadow Mouse. Now and then he put his nose to the ground to take up the scent of Farmer Brown's Boy. He didn't need to do that, because he knew exactly where Farmer Brown's Boy had gone. He did it from habit.

Presently Reddy came to the bushes on the edge of the Green Meadows. "It was right here that Farmer Brown's Boy threw something away," said Reddy to himself. "I'll look around and see what it was. Probably Mouse, because I'm interested in it, but at least it will satisfy my curiosity."

So Reddy began to look around and it didn't take him long to find that old oilcan. At first he didn't know that this was the thing Farmer Brown's Boy had thrown there, but when he started to smell of it he got the smell and then he knew. "Huh!" muttered Reddy. "I wonder what he brought this old can way over here for?"

Just then Reddy got something besides the main smell. It was the smell of Mouse. It was the smell of Meadow Mouse. Reddy lifted his nose and very carefully tested the air. Unmistakably he smelled Mouse. Reddy forgot all about Farmer Brown's Boy. Down went his nose to the ground and Reddy began to eagerly search all around that can. He was puzzled. He didn't get that Mouse smell. He poked his nose under the leaves, into every little bunch of grass, all around that can for some distance, but no smell of Mouse did he get. Then he came back and sat down beside that can to try to think the matter out. No sooner had he sat down than he smelled the Mouse again. He knew that it was not the scent left by a Mouse, but the scent of a Mouse that was right close at hand. He tingled all over. He actually looked up in the bushes, half expecting to see a Mouse above his head somewhere. You see, Reddy knows that mice do climb up in

Elected Director of Fairbanks-Morse Co.

T. H. McWILLIAM

At a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Canadian Fairbanks-Morse Company, Limited, Mr. T. H. McWilliam was elected a director to fill the vacancy created by the untimely death of Mr. Herbert F. Walker.

Mr. McWilliam was educated at McGill University, and took a further course in engineering at McGill University. Entering the employ of the company at Montreal in 1907, he was later transferred to Ottawa and in 1924 returned to Montreal as manager of the Montreal branch.

Other appointments announced by the president, Mr. T. McWilliam, are Mr. Percy A. Forster, treasurer, and Mr. Charles Braden, secretary. Mr. Forster entered the employ of the company at Montreal in 1911 and was transferred to Vancouver in 1915, where he has held the position of credit manager. He is returning to Montreal at once to take over his new duties. Mr. Charles Braden, who has been appointed secretary, was formerly assistant to the secretary-treasurer.

BEBE DANIELS STARS AT CAPITOL

Picturesque Setting for Famous Star in "Love Comes Along"

Fresh proof that Bebe Daniels has relinquished once and for all the light, farcical comedies in which her athletic prowess is the chief essential in "Love Comes Along," showing at the Capitol Theatre today.

In this, her second Radio picture, a new Bebe flashes upon the screen. She is neither the lissome charmer of "Rio Rita," fame, nor the all-American sports girl of earlier productions. She presents an entirely new characterization as "Peggy," an American actress left destitute when her company disbands on a tropical island.

Without question her portrayal is the most dramatic Bebe has ever given the screen. Not since she appeared with Rudolph Valentino in "Monsieur Beaudouin" has she had an opportunity to display such emotional depth.

Bebe's voice grows in beauty and range with each succeeding film she makes. When she sings the song, "Love Comes Along," straight to her lover at the gay festa, and later when it reaches him over the water and brings him back in time to rescue her from the island's dictator, Montague Love, she imbues it with warmth and appeal that strikes a corresponding note in one's heart.

Ned Sparks furnishes excellent comedy, and the direction shows the fine hand of Rupert Julian. It is his first talking picture, and he has made one well worth seeing.

Reddy leaned forward a little and the Mouse smell became stronger business sometimes. But no Mouse was in the bushes above his head.

Reddy leaned forward a little and the Mouse smell became stronger. With it was mingled the man smell. And right then Reddy realized that that smell came from that old tin can. He put his nose to the top of that can. He got the man smell, where Farmer Brown's Boy had had the handle of the can in his hand. But stronger, much stronger, was the smell of Mouse and it was coming from the little round hole in the top of the can. Reddy put his nose to that round hole and then sniffed. A look of pleasure came into those crafty eyes of his. He grinned. He almost laughed aloud. That Mouse was in that can!

"As I live, I believe that is Nanny Meadow Mouse!" said Reddy to himself. "Yes, sir, I believe that is Nanny Meadow Mouse! I have almost caught her several times. But now I really have caught her. She must have been in that old can when Farmer Brown's Boy Picked it up. He didn't know he was bringing her over here for me, but that's what he was doing."

Reddy put his black nose to that hole in the can and sniffed once more. Down inside that can poor Nanny Meadow Mouse shivered and shook. As she had the hungry sniff. She had heard it before and she knew what it was that was sniffing. Reddy Fox had found his Mouse.

Why a DUNLOP goes far-t-h-e-r

A perfectly balanced, symmetrical ball, goes farther than a ball that's out of true.
Dunlop Golf Balls are favored by champions and Professionals wherever golf is played because of their perfection of balance. They are so true. That's one reason they go farther.

There's another reason—the quality of the rubber wound into the ball. Dunlops are made of the best rubber the world affords. Tested and weighed at every stage, each Dunlop ball is accurately made and balanced.
You are at your best with a Dunlop. Buy from your Pro or sports goods dealer.

The Dunlop range of golf balls includes:

Dr. W. T. Davison Sinks Tee Shot At Oak Bay Club

WHILE playing with Lieutenant-Colonel Lennox Irving, Dr. Wesley T. Davison, of Carmel, Cal., sank his tee shot at the 174-yard thirteenth hole at the Victoria Golf Club yesterday. Dr. Davison, although living in the sunny South, has been a member of the local club for many years. The Californian's "dodo" is a much cherished one, as he is in the capital city on a holiday.

84. This, however, was as good as Cyril Tolley's score and better than George Duncan could boast. Duncan's card showed two glittering eights.
VON ELM'S CHANCES RUINED
Von Elm's chances were practically ruined by his nine at the fifth. He took three shots in a bunker, two in tall grass and a couple of putts for this substantial aggregate.
Don Moe showed the way for the Americans early in the day and his 74 was a good score for Hoylake.

Jones was a midday attraction. The American star played well and was rolling his putts to the brink of the cup, only to see most of them remain out. Only two long ones dropped.

Jones is among the leaders, but he is not out in front as he was at St. Andrews three years ago when his first round 68 gave him an advantage of five strokes.

The starting times will be reversed tomorrow, with Archie Compston the first of the favorites to go out.
After tomorrow's round the field will be reduced by the forced retirement of all players fifteen or more strokes behind the leader.

Great Progress Being Made in Tennis Meet

Twenty-One More Matches Carried Out in Victoria Lawn Tennis Club Championships—
Twenty-Five Carded Today

Great progress was made in the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club championships yesterday at the Willows when twenty-one matches were run off, which considerably reduced the record field which started in the tourney nearly a week ago. The majority of the games played were in the handicap events.

Lieut. Commander J. C. I. Edwards and Hugo Rayment, club captain, continued their victorious march towards the men's open singles title at present adorning the brow of Marsh Gordon, veteran member, by scoring fine wins over H. A. Phillips and Desmond Burdon-Murphy respectively. Edwards ousted Phillips in straight sets, 6-0, 6-3, while Rayment eliminated Burdon-Murphy in another two-set match, 6-4, 6-2.

Keen competition was again witnessed in the handicap matches. While many of the games went the usual two sets, several were not decided until an extra set had been played.

Carnera and Godfrey Quarrel Next Monday Is Attracting Interest

Victory for Giant Italian Will Put Him in Line for Big Money Bouts, Trumbull Says—Mix Expected to Draw Huge Crowd

By WALTER TRUMBULL
(Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance.)

The Primo Carnera-George Godfrey bout in Philadelphia, on Monday night, promises to be a social, if not an artistic success. It may be both.

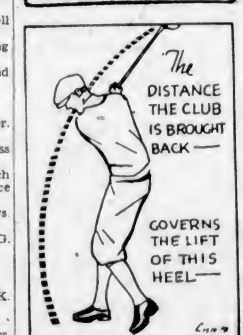

James I. Bush, of New York, is lining up some of Madison Square Garden's 600 millionaires and expects to take a carload of them on the Philly pilgrimage, and naturally the Quaker City's home smart set will turn out. It looks as if Primo and George might make a big improvement on Ward McAllister's 400, raising it to 40,000.

Among the absent will be Frank Bruen. Mr. Bruen wants to go, but is forced to send his regrets, because Campolo is boxing on Monday evening at the Boston Garden. It may be said, without contradiction, that to many persons Campolo appears the most promising fighter now in the glove business. He has a right hand which is a right hand, and he is learning what to do with his left. If Vittorio Campolo ever learns to use a right uppercut in close, he is going to hit somebody in the back row with an opponent's head.

The Carnera-Godfrey match naturally is creating interest. All wish to know whether the big and good-natured George will arrive at the ring in handcuffs. Will Godfrey wrap the drapery of his bath towel about him and lie down to pleasant dreams? Primo has been treated roughly by at least two colored men, who were neither as large nor as able as Godfrey. Has he improved so marvellously in the course of a few months? Perhaps he has.

GREAT BOUT EXPECTED
It should be a great bout. I should not be surprised to see some fast slugging, with several knockdowns, and a thrilling finish. I cannot quite picture Carnera as defeated. A draw might be an artistic thing, if the battle was furious enough. But Carnera has not yet quite got

AS CHAMPIONS PLAY IT

What is a cure for topping?
Answered by
ABE G. ESPINOSA

On the tee one should learn to tee his ball fairly high, playing it opposite the left heel, not to raise up too quickly when making the stroke. Many players are inclined to raise their bodies. They do this in trying to "lift" the ball instead of letting the club do it.

On the fairway, in playing an iron one should stand closer to the ball, addressing it opposite the left heel and hitting about a quarter of an inch in back of the ball. Do not be afraid to take a pivot. This is a very important thing to learn in golf.

DIX SCORES KNOCKOUT

OAKLAND, Cal., June 18.—Willard Dix, light-heavyweight from Bellingham, Wash., stepped out of his class tonight to knock out Jack Stewart, San Francisco, in the first round of their ten-round bout at the Oakland Auditorium.
Dix weighed 172 pounds and Stewart nine pounds more. Two minutes after the fight opened, Dix had his opponent on the floor with a left hook to the jaw. Stewart was completely out and it took a minute to revive him. The Bellingham boy had previously scored an eight-count knockdown and had the advantage from the start.

Ask No Questions!

By BELDON DUFF

CHAPTER XVI

The letter was an invitation to dine at Berkshire Towers that evening.

Abby, who had never quite overcome her old World War reverie for any lord of the manor, was thrown into a twitter because of it.

"He'll be sending his limousine for me, I've no doubt."

"Oh, yes," Miss West tossed this letter aside. "Everything's being done according to Hoyle. Nevertheless, I don't think I'll go."

"Not go?" the Scotchwoman gasped. "Whatever's gotten into you to refuse a grand man like Mr. Diamond when he bids you to his house?"

"It's a bit late in the day to turn so hospitable," was the enigmatic reply. "I'll send a note of regret by Seth Toby when he leaves at five o'clock."

Nor did Miss Barth's muttered belief that the world was going straight to the dogs move her to change her mind. Not until David entered the living-room with an armful of logs for the fireplace was the subject of the letter brought up again.

"It was the giant himself who mentioned it, and he looks no pains to conceal the fact that he had overheard the conversation that had taken place earlier in the afternoon."

"I'd go tonight if I were you," came the unexpected suggestion as he knelt to pile the logs in the wood basket.

"Oh, you would?" said Miss West in a cool crisp voice. Four hours of brewing over the contradictions presented by this disturbingly ingratiating stranger had enveloped her in a difficult state of mind. She was in no mood to listen to advice.

David seemed to notice it.

"I know it's none of my business," he made haste to explain, and then, manlike, spied the gesture of self-effacement by adding, "but I think you're making a mistake not to."

"Why?" The barrier which she had with such difficulty broken down that afternoon was up again between them. But now it was of her building.

"No reason in particular," she answered rather wearily. "I only thought it might do you good to get out of this atmosphere for an hour or two."

"Thanks for your solicitude," she was alarmed to realize that her tongue had become a two-edged sword, yet unable somehow to stay its destructive sweep, "but I've no intention of being inveigled away from the scene of action."

"Invited?" Quile beside herself, smarting from the backwash of her own words, "I suppose it would suit your plans better if there were no one in authority here tonight."

"Of course it would," he rose and looked at her, much as a bear cub might look at the wren which attacks it. After what had been an uncomfortably long pause, "Miss West, the ability to take another person on trust is a sign of breeding. You've definitely catalogued yourself in my mind as a thoroughbred. So now I'll not quarrel with you if your second thoughts are less generous than your first."

Generous indeed! "Thoroughbred! Aloud, Miss West said, "I'm not going!" And then, though she knew repetition would only weaken her position, "Nothing could tempt me to go!"

"As you like," he said with sudden stiffness, and without another word turned and left the room.

For an hour Annassa fidgeted about, trying to decide what she wanted to do. Three notes, declining the invitation, were written—and thrown into the waste-paper basket. At last she called Abby. When the Scotchwoman appeared, "I've changed my mind about tonight. Please come upstairs and help me get into my things."

Miss Barth needed no second bidding. One of the two dresses which she had slipped into the trunk for just such an emergency as the present was brought out and laid on the bed, unfigured cloth of gold, plain to severity, with a long straight bodice and a wide the above hand, one of the freakiest with which I have ever come in contact, presents a very pretty example of arriving at a bid in which a Slam can be made at Auction and likewise bid for at Contract in a suit in which the original bidder does not hold the high card values desirable for an opening bid. Furthermore, such suit is named after partner has definitely assisted first suit, in which the Dealer had a clearly defined original bid, even though it happened to be the shorter of his two playable suits.

SALIENT POINTS OF THE BIDDING

Auction: South, with 5½ quick tricks in hand, bids two Clubs on four to the A-K rather than open the bidding with Spades, in which suit he holds five to the Queen.

With the system of forcing bids in use, there is no possibility of not being able to mention the Spades later, unless partner should have an absolutely trickless hand.

In spite of the opening two bid, South's hand is strong enough to overcall with two Diamonds, since he has five tricks in that suit alone. In addition to the Ace of Spades and two-guarded Queen of Hearts.

North naturally supports the Clubs. East, with six Diamonds and a singleton Spade and two small Hearts, readily realizes that, if South holds a genuine opening bid of two Clubs and North holds an assist therefore, there can be little hope of saving the game. On the other hand, West, in order to venture a defensive bid over an opening bid of two, must have a fairly strong hand; likewise he should be short in Clubs.

Therefore, in spite of the fact that his values fall short of real assist by at least 1½ tricks, the assist is given in the hope of saving the game at a relatively small cost.

Clubs having been assisted by North, South can readily see a game in his hand at either Clubs or Spades. He, accordingly, bids three Spades, rather than four Clubs in the hope and justifiable expectation that Spades may be the suit wherein North's assistance lies.

West bids four Diamonds in an to save game, just as East assisted Diamonds for the same reason.

West bids four Diamonds in an to save game, just as East assisted Diamonds for the same reason.

with heavy, gold-encrusted borders. A cloth of fine lace from Antwerp. The best of everything. It was what the owner of the establishment demanded for himself.

In the arrangement of the table this evening there was one difference. Tall wine glasses stood grouped about two of the three places. The owner of Berkshire Towers never drank. His own place had but one goblet; and that was intended for water.

It was not until Miss West entered the dining room, on the arm of her host, that she knew they were not to dine alone. Another guest was expected; but where he was and why he did not put in an appearance, John Diamond did not offer to explain.

Though a tall man, and heavy, the owner of The New York Daily Free Press put his guest in her chair with a grace that hinted of more experience after walking round to his own place with the leisurely tread of one who anticipates an hour or two of good food and company.

Used as she was to the homes of wealth, Miss West felt a trifle oppressed by the magnificence with which she found herself surrounded. Perfection of detail became monotonous. The clocklike precision with which dishes were presented and removed was unreal, theatrical.

Too, she felt at a loss for the children to be free to gather cherries. In North America the cherry is one of the first fruits which appears in the late Spring to tempt one's appetite after winter when fresh fruit is not so plentiful. Its attractive red color, tart flavor, and general deliciousness, makes it a very tempting fruit at the beginning of the Summer fruit season.

The name of the cherry is taken from the Greek word meaning horn.

Robbery Charges Filed Against Edward Gorman

TACOMA, June 18.—Charges were filed late yesterday against Edward Gorman, arrested here Saturday for the alleged participation in the robbery of a local agency of the National Bank of Tacoma, December 6, 1924, when Mr. Hugo Delin, cashier, was held up and robbed of $7,500.

Gorman's picture was identified by six persons immediately after the robbery as one of the robbers, according to the police.

He was not captured, however, and was later convicted of a Nanaimo, B.C., bank robbery and imprisoned at New Westminster. Through some error he was released from the British Columbia prison before Tacoma police were notified.

Following his arrest Saturday in Tacoma, Gorman was turned over to the Seattle police as a suspect in a cigar store robbery there, June 8, but was not identified as the hold-up man, and was returned to the Tacoma jail.

West, in the absence of an assist from partner, does not care to force the bidding further, and accordingly passes.

North is now enabled to read South's hand with considerable accuracy. It is practically a certainty that South does not hold both the Ace and Queen of Spades, since with such holding his initial bid would have been two Spades rather than two Clubs. It is also very probable that he does not hold the Ace, since with five to an Ace, he would likely have bid the Spades in preference to the Clubs, regardless of the fact that he held out one of the top cards thereof. Therefore, his most probable holding is five to the Queen. Accordingly, considerable strength in the red suits must be accorded South, in order to give him an original bid of two Clubs.

Being well able to assist either the Spades or Clubs, he must consider the possible discard that might be obtained at one or the other. Although it is possible that South holds five Clubs as well as five Spades, there is a slightly greater probability that he holds but four, since he suited to the weaker suit after he had been assisted.

If South should hold five of each suit, then North would be enabled to discard a Heart on a long Spade, but since he has four Hearts in his hand, it does not appear that such discard would be of much avail, and the same applies if South's holding should be four Clubs to the A-K.

On the other hand, should South hold but four Clubs, he will obtain a discard in the dummy, and it is almost a certainty that such discard will prove valuable.

The fact that North could have discarded two Hearts in this particular case—one on the Ace of Diamonds and one on a long Spade—has no effect whatever upon the principle.

North, accordingly, bids five Spades, which South, with the Ace of Diamonds and A-K of Hearts, carries to six.

THE PLAY

There is little to the play of this hand. West opens the King of Diamonds, which South wins with the Ace, leading a small Spade. West plays the Nine on the almost forlorn hope that East may hold the Queen. The dummy winning the trick, returns a small Spade, which is taken by the Ace in West's hand. West now makes the only possible Contract defeating lead—that of a small Heart. There is no hope that it will be successful and it proves not to be. South takes the trick, takes out West's trump and discards his Right of Hearts on the fifth Club in Dummy.

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK MCCOY

CHERRIES ARE RIPE

Cherries belong to the stone fruits, or the drupes, being of the same family as plums, peaches and apricots. There are over 250 kinds of cherries, some of them large, small, sweet, sour, dark, bright red, firm, soft, and some heart-shaped. The cherry is grown in more climates than any other single fruit, since it is found from Vancouver Island to Newfoundland, and from Florida to Texas. It also grows in Europe, China and Japan.

In Japan the festival of the cherry blossoms in which the flowering trees break into bloom attracts many travelers. In 1912 the city of Tokyo sent to Washington, D.C., over 2,600 flowering cherry trees, which were set out in Potomac Park, and which provide a full month of bloom for the capital, a yearly reminder of the good will between the two countries.

In the forest region of France dried cherries are used in making soup. In many country districts, too, the fruit is used for the children to be free to gather cherries.

Referring to the wood, which is as hard as horn.

Besides the cherry being used fresh at this time of the year, it is also employed in making beverages. Some of these are cherry bounce, cherry cordial, and cherry brandy. In the Upper Rhine the pulp is fermented and distilled into Kirshwasser, while Zara, in Dalmatia, is famous for its maraschino liquor of cherries and honey.

While cherries are now so plentiful I would like to especially recommend that my readers learn how to use them to get the best results in promoting better health. Those who have been thinking about taking a fast should take advantage of the cherry season and take a few days' fruit fast on the delicious fruit.

Tomorrow I will tell you more about the cherry fast and the most healthful way to use cherries in your diet.

A certain actor, who walked across the stage in a street scene of a third-rate drama, was fond of telling his friends what he would accomplish when he had a speaking part. No matter how small it was, he would show them some real acting. Eventually his opportunity came. He was booked for a coming production. He was to appear in one of the scenes and say two words: "It is."

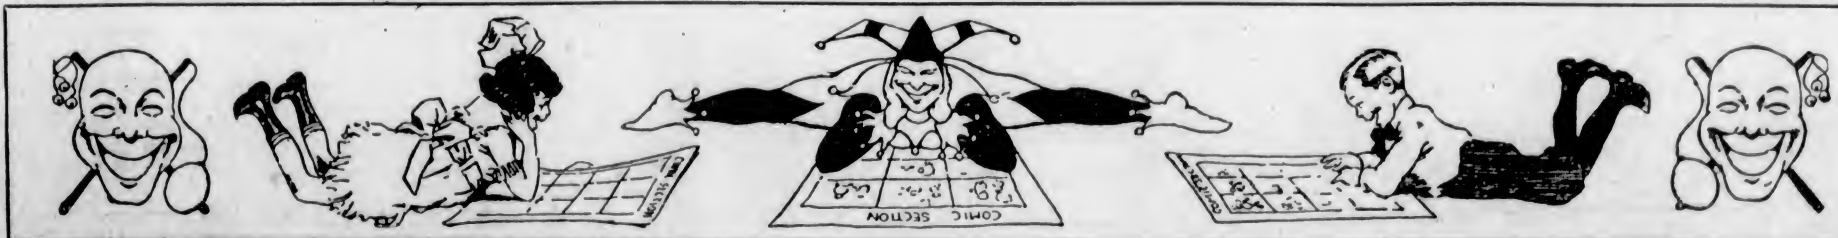

For three weeks he rehearsed nightly before his mirror, trying all sorts of gestures, expressions and tones, until he felt perfect. The eventful night arrived when the curtain was to rise on the new play for the first time, and the actor impatiently awaiting his cue. It came. "And so this is the end!" With his best tragedian aid he stalked to the centre of the stage, and in a voice of thunder cried: "It is."

J. DE STEPHANO REMANDED FOR SENTENCE IN PROVINCIAL POLICE COURT

Pound Law in Laxton District Involved in Additional Case
Heard Yesterday

In the Provincial Police Court, yesterday, J. de Stephano was charged with being in possession of a firearm, being an alien, without a permit, contrary to Section 118 of the Criminal Code; also with assaulting a peace officer in the execution of his duty, contrary to Section 296 of the Code. Stephano pleaded guilty to both charges and was remanded for sentence until next Wednesday.

Provincial Constable A. C. Carmichael told the court that he had met Stephano when the latter was driving a motor car, had questioned him, and had searched the car, finding a revolver, which was produced in court. The revolver was not loaded when found. Stephano had engaged in a struggle with an endeavor to resist the search.

FOUND ACT ACTION

Enforcement of the Pound Act was at issue in the hearing of a charge against Cyril Shaw, of Laxton. Mr. Heath and Mrs. Heath, giving evidence for the Crown, testified that at 3 o'clock in the morning of May 9 they found in their garden four cows belonging to Mr. Shaw. Mr. Heath had driven them into a small enclosure and barred the gate to it, with a view to taking them to the pound later in the morning. At about 5:45 o'clock they had been awakened by a noise and found that Mr. Shaw had taken the cows out of the enclosure and was driving them home. Mr. Heath had gone out and spoken to Mr. Shaw and the latter, after taking his cattle home, had returned to look at the damage done to the garden and had offered to pay for it. Mr. Heath had refused to accept payment, saying that what he wanted was enforcement of the pound law.

LENIENCY SHOWN

Mr. Shaw said that his cows were heavy with milk and seeing them in the enclosure he had feared injury to them. He had not known that the pound law was in force there, or that he was violating it. If the cows had been taken to the pound they would have been kept there all day, and in their conditions would have suffered. When Mr. Heath had come out of the house, witness had offered payment for damage done, and had later repeated the offer, which had been refused.

Stipendiary Magistrate George Jay held that Mr. Shaw had violated the Pound Act, which prohibits anyone from "rescuing or attempting to rescue" cattle which have been seized for the purpose of impounding them. In view of all the circumstances of the case, and as this was the first which had arisen since the district in question was recently brought under the act, he would impose a nominal fine of one dollar.

Corporal Harvey appeared for the Crown and Mr. A. J. Patton for the defence.

GIVES FLAT DENIAL

LONDON, June 18.—Lord Lee, of Farnham, gave flat denial tonight to the report that the Gaumont British Picture Corporation had passed into the hands of the Fox Film Corporation of America.

The statement is sufficiently disproved by the fact that the Metropolitan & Bradford Trust Company, Limited, of which I am the permanent chairman, owns its own right over 2,000,000 of the 5,000,000 ordinary shares of the Gaumont Picture Corporation, and thus holds control of a substantial voting majority. Moreover, the constitution of the Metropolitan & Bradford Trust, and my appointment as its chairman, were specially designed to insure and preserve British control."

TRIUMPHANT RETURN

Kobe, Japan, June 18.—Rellro Wakatsuki, head of the Japanese delegation to the recent London Naval Conference, was triumphantly welcomed upon his return here yesterday from England.

The piers were jammed with a crowd of about twenty thousand persons, who waved flags and shouted, "Banzai!" for Wakatsuki. Airplanes circled overhead, daylight pyrotechnics were set off and bands blared. The welcome to Wakatsuki was broadcast throughout the nation. Wakatsuki spoke into the microphone immediately after landing.
